TCBY YOGURT SHOPS

There have been several questions raised concerning the status of TCBY yogurt shops, and specifically the one in the Meyer Park Randall's shopping center. This note is to clarify its status.

The local TCBY facility is not under HKA or any other Kashruth certification. Many of their ingredients have either no Kashruth certification or unreliable certification. Specifically, toppings, cookies, and store baked waffle cones should all be avoided.

That said, the frozen yogurt / ice cream itself as well as machine made cones (not the locally produced waffle cones) have reliable certification and can be consumed by the kosher consumer.
